W. H. Richardson, about to become a dad with his first pair of kids, and is inviting his friends to call at his office and see his new office desk. It is a beauty, solid and substantial made of oak. Andy Tochtermann made the desk, and it is a fine piece of cabinet work, in white pine, in which wood, and as far as French polish glass, the world of F. E. Freeman, the painter.

This is late, but it is never too late to do good you know. The reason it is late we never heard of it before this week. E. E. Christian, of Atchison county, captured one of Holt county's girls, and she is now in the care of Dr. Clegg, with his investment, that he concluded his first born should be of Holt county stock, so on January 12th, there came to him and his wife, a bright, baby boy, and may be you think Grandpa Polk isn't proud.

Dr. F. E. Seeman has just received a telegraph and a post card from his son, Fred, of Troy, New York, telling him that his first son, born last Saturday, Jan. 25, below Mr. Ziehman's sixty-seventh birthday. This was served at about two o'clock. These presents were sent by Rev. Joseph W. Ziehman, wife of Joseph W. Ziehman, of New Point, J. W. Roscoe and family, Dr. Ziehman and family, N. Z. Ziehman, and family, Mrs. Aspinwall and wife, Rev. J. W. Keister, wife, daughter, Mrs. Frances Ziehman, Mrs. Ziehman, Mrs. F. E. Seeman. One of the presents was made by Rev. J. W. Keister, who had come back to us by Mr. F. E. Seeman, Daniel, while in Arizona a few years ago, and his wife had a gold band put on this making a handsome set. At present he is in Troy, New York.

The telephone exchange will soon be removed to quarters over the bank of Troy. Mr. Stocking has been giving excellent telephone service in the past, and thus made it possible to give him better facilities for handling the growth in his business. We hope he will continue to be ready to make rates. They are rates if you do not care about you son.

The police driving gang for the Burgin was at work this week placing the poles for a new water tank north of the fracture of his right collar bone. He was hauling fodder, when the team became frightened and ran away with the above result. The wagon was badly wrecked, and one of the horses seriously injured.
